

profile: Currently working as the head of design team at Eclectic Woman, Sal Camacho graduated with a degree in Graphic Design/Multimedia on Dec 2003 from Westwood College of Arts. Has four years of experience as a web designer as well as a print designer. His close interaction with business development team as well as programmers provides him with the ability to mould design criteria with business concerns and programming limitations.

work experience: irandokht (e-zine for women) 09.03–present
head of design team

- developed the company visual identity to reflect the company value
- designed the navigation bar using visual consideration to assist ease of navigation, clarity of sections and functionality
- designed art club section, site map and section logos eclectic woman (e-commerce)

head of design team

- designed shopping structured site, combining design consideration with user friendly functionality forefront publishers (print publishers) 02.03–01.04

freelance project

- logo, book cover, and cd package design education: westwood college of technology associate degree in graphic design/multimedia graduated with honors technical experience: pc and mac photoshop illustrator dreamweaver (html, css, javascript) quarkxpress

indesign
ms word powerpoint 45 wpm

awards: outstanding attendance awarded: august 2002, october 2003, january 2003 director's list: 4.0 grade point average awarded: august 2002, october 2002 languages: fluent: english and spanish